stand for the first time, in doubt as to what I may say about him.

In order that we may all properly understand the situation, as it confronted the President, I wish to here quote Article 66, Chapter 5, of the Revised Statutes (2nd Edition) of the United States, which says, "Soldiers charged with crime shall be confined, until tried by Court Martial, or released by proper authority." Article 72 says, "Any General officer, commanding the army of the U. S. A. a separate army or a separate department, shall be competent to appoint a General Court Martial, either in time of peace or in time of War, etc." Article 81 says, "Every officer commanding a Garrison, Fort or other place, where the troops consist of different corps shall (subject to provision of Article 80) be competent, to appoint for such Garrison, Fort or other place, Court Martial, consisting of three officers to try offences etc." Art. 5 of the Constitution provides that no one person, shall be compelled to be a witness against himself, nor to be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of the law.

This is the law and it is to be presumed, that all laws are mad, for the purpose of guiding those charged with their execution, and to protect these charged or uncharged with their vio-

Five Year's Review Of Musical Work

IN CHICAGO SINCE THE FALL OF 1901. AN INTERESTING SKETCH OF THE CAREER OF PROF. N. CLARK SMITH. IN THE MUSICAL WORLD.

Prof. N. Clark Smith may justly be proclaimed America's most eminent musician and teacher, as the record will show, beginning with the reorganizing and training of Bethel's old choir in 1901, those wonderful singing attracted thousands of people from all parts of the country, and whose members now make up the personal of all the best Jubilee companies now on the concert stage.

His next step was to organize and teach the Famous Chicago Ladies' Mandolin Club (12 pieces, selected from some of the city's prominent families. These beautiful women delighted thousands with their sweet music at all of the church concerts, etc., during the year of 1902.

The Symphony Orchestra was organized and trained by Prof. Smith in 1903 at Bethel Church, with twenty-eight of Chicago's best musicians, which was the first Colored organization to play Beethoven's first symphony in America, using Oboe, Bassoon, Tympani, Horns, as being the finest Negro band in the world of 25 pieces.

The Young Ladies' Orchestra was also organized in 1904, with Miss Irene Howard, cornet soloist, and Miss Alberta Riggs, solo violinist. Every one remembers how these young girls bid fair to out rival the young men's orchestra at that time.

Prof. Smith's latest efforts is the training of the Chicago boys, Cadet brass and reed band of 25 pieces between the ages of 12 and 20 years. These lads play standard marches by R. B. Hall, selections from the "Bohemian Girl," in the short period of six months. It must be remembered that Prof. Smith has taught each of these boys unaided by any one, as he can play every known instrument used in Military Band or Orchestra.

This is a record in which every Negro with a drop of manhood should be proud.

This musician is well known to the musical lovers as a vocalist and composer of no small degree. Two of his classic with full string sections. To-day the orchestra reduced to twenty pieces, delights thousands at all of our swell functions.

In 1904 he accepted the directorship and reorganized the Eighth Regiment Band, who were featured at the Lexington, Ky., fair and carnival, Aug. 16th to 20th, of the same year, and was pronounced by the critical southern press-compositions having been sung by members of the Chicago Musical College faculty last April at the closing recital. The musical Courier and other papers speak of his charming classic plantation songs. The best known are being sung by Mr. Harry T. Burleigh of N. Y., "Rose," a love song and "Bye O' Baby," a lullaby which we print on another page.

Mr. Smith is now devoting much of his time to vocal instruction.

lation. Was the law in this case violated? Where are we to find the decision of any competent Tribunal that any one of the discharged soldiers committed any crime by firing on Brownsville or otherwise. When did it become a law by the moral or legal code to guess that one of ten men is guilty and punish all for fear the guilty one may escape? If such is the law would not the son of our illustrious President who was arrested some few week since, for a dastardly assault by some of his school comrades, upon a Boston policeman, been the first to expiate under this new strenuous doctrine? Where is the verdict of the Court Martial that tried these men? If there is none, why? The law as just recited provides for one, and the discharge without the sanction of law, is illegal.

Who then violated the law? Sober, sane men, everywhere, will answer, Theodore Roosevelt. And if this answer is true, the verdict of dismissal of these soldiers is illegal and unjust and amounts to executive lynching.

If the President can violate the law, who then can enforce it? I hope, that no one of you, however, will act as the President, that you will obey the law, live loyal to your Country, and Flag, Enlist in the army and navy, and fight for true honor, manhood, and thus prove your worth as part and parcel of America's best citizenry, for be it remembered that a majority of the citizens of this country, believe in justice and the impartial enforcement of the law; they believe that if this Government is to endure that we must not cry, "down with the Tyrants who oppress and oppress the people by a violation of the law across the sea," and choose our words upon those who violate the law at home, although they may attempt to hedge, by order of suspension, after the People have been aroused.

Shall we whimper over the tortures practiced on each other by the Pagan Indians and smile upon the unjust conduct of Christian men? Shall we go long as these things last, exult above the scattered remnants of that stately race, and triumph in the white enjoyment of their broad possessions? Rather, for me, restore the forest and the Indian Village, in lieu of the Stars and Stripes, let some poor feather flutter in the breeze, replace the streets and squares by wigwams and in place of law breaking Presidents give us sachems and though the death song of a Thousand haughty warriors fill the air, it will be music to the shriek of one poor outraged man.
